Project Description

The Judicial Liaison team serves as the principal foreign affairs advisor to the Chairperson of the United States Judicial Conference Committee on International Judicial relations. The JL maintains Department-wide responsibilities and relationships with all DoS bureaus engaged in rule of law programs that involve the federal judiciary, USG entities, international organizations, the private sector, NGO and academic communities. In this capacity, research about foreign judiciary history and practices can contribute immeasurably to planning a visit from foreign delegations coming to the U.S. and also in sending U.S. justices, judges and NGO institutions out to ensure successful programs abroad.

Desired Skills Interests

Skill

research about the judicial system and practices in countries that will send delegates to the U.S.
